CAR WILL BE RUN TO FIGHT PLAGUE

Baltimore and Ohio Enlists in Crusade against Tuberculosis.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 7-The Baltihas enlisted in the nation-wide crusade for the examination of tuberculosis, having fitted up an antituberculosis car at its Mount Ciare shops at Baltimore for the Maryland) eradication of the white plague, greatest revivals ever held in Mon- to this little town again. The car is designed to display antituberculosis exhibits and lectures will be delivered on the prevention of the disease by local physicians at the cities and towns to be visited in the state. The car may later tour other states which the Baltimore and Ohio lines reach.

The ravages of the white plague have spread with such alarming rapidity in the United States during the last twenty years, and with such fatal results, that every known means has been resorted to by medical science in coping with it. The work of the Maryland society in undertaking an educational campaign which will reach every section of the state gives promise of being the most effectual move of the kind undertaken up to this time. The Red Cross Society has accomplished wonderful résults in stamping out tuberculosis, especially in the larger centers of poulation, and the plan of the Maryland society is to supplement that work by disseminating such information through the country districts as will tend to put people on the defensive against the devastating disease.

The car which the Baltimore and Ohlo railroad has fitted up to further such ends in enameled in white, both inside and out, and is thoroughly sanitary in design. The purpose is to bring the history of tuberculosis, its cause and effect, to the attention of the people of the state in such a way as to be comprehensive to all classes.

The car was opened to inspection February 2 at the Mount Clare shops and the mechanics and other employees of the railroad visited it. The car will also visit the Riverside and Locust Point terminals of the railroad, where large numbers of railroad men are employed. On Saturday, February 17, the car will be formally opened and inspected by Governor Goldsborough, Mayor Preston and other state officials as well as municipal authorities and Baitmore and Ohio officers. During the Health Congress to be held in Baltimore the week of February 19 to 24, the car will remain at Mount Royal station for the inspection of delegates to the congress.

A large and powerful graphocar, the purpose being to deliver "canned" lectures to farmers who for heating and lighting purposes.

Taxes for Month of January Reach Several Thousand Dollars.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 7-The sum of $6,250.33 derived from inheritance taxes, has been turned over by Tax Commissioner Blue to the state treasurer and deposited to the general fund of the state, as the amount collected during January from that source. This amount, however, is much below the average, as it is believed the amount from inheritance taxes will average at least $100,000 a year, and in fact had for some years. During the first five days in February, however, $2,-591.93 has been collected, and while this rate is not likely to be kept up for February, the indications | are the state will receive much more this month than last month.

The larger amounts collected thus far this month came from the following estates: C. J. Rawling's estate of Wheeling, $948,38; Isaac Jackson's estate, Weston, $444.66; George C. Dewey's estate, balance ($500 having been previously paid) $889.97. The balance received came from a number of small estates.
